

United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS)

Media & Spokesperson Unit
Communications & Public Information Office

PHOTO RELEASE

Juba, 25 July, 2013

UN providing food and security for Jonglei displaced

The UN World Food Programme (WFP) is distributing food to thousands of people who have fled violence in Pibor County, Jonglei State, in an ongoing humanitarian exercise that began on 24 July, with support from UNMISS.

The recipients, mainly women and children, register at Pibor Market and then collect their food at the WFP warehouse in the town.

Women registering for food at Pibor Market

(Photo: UNMISS/Martine Perret)

For further information or media enquiries,
Spokesperson: Ariane Quentier - quentier@un.org +211 912 177 770

United Nations Mission in South Sudan – Communications & Public Information Office

www.unmiss.unmissions.org

UN House Juba 03, P.O. Box 29, Juba, South Sudan

Collecting sorghum, oil and salt from the WFP warehouse
(Photo: UNMISS/Martine Perret)

WFP distribution includes CSB, the children's nutritional supplement.
(Photo: UNMISS/Martine Perret)

UNMISS is supporting WFP and its partners with a continuing security presence on the ground in Pibor as humanitarian agencies deliver assistance to those in need.

UNMISS peacekeepers ending a security patrol at the WFP warehouse in Pibor
(Photo: UNMISS / Martine Perret)

The UNMISS peacekeepers continue regular patrols in the surrounding area.

An UNMISS patrol on the outskirts of Pibor.
(Photo: UNMISS/Martine Perret)

-End-